

STIFF FINES, LECTURE GIVEN IN 5 GAMBLING CASES BY COURT

Five merchants in the southeastern part of the county were told by the Adams County Court Saturday morning: "If you can't make enough money without taking moneys from children with gambling machines, you'd better get into some other line of endeavor."

The five had been accused of entering up and maintaining gambling devices in their establishments. Three had pleaded guilty to permitting gambling on pin ball machines. One had been found guilty by a jury of maintaining the pinball machines as gambling devices. One was found innocent of the charge by a jury but ordered to pay the costs by the same verdict.

The five were Charles L. Sentz, Sixth St., McSherrystown; Monroe Morelock, 44 Queen St., Littlestown, and Bernard Wolf, 593 S. Franklin St., Hanover, all of whom had pleaded guilty; Robert D. Strausbaugh, 311 Ridge Ave., McSherrystown, who had been found guilty following a trial; and Raymond H. Smith, Hanover R. 4, who was found innocent, but ordered to pay the costs.

Cause Juveniles To Steal

The court levied fines of $400 each and the costs against Sentz, Morelock and Wolf. Strausbaugh was fined $500 and ordered to pay the costs.

Judge W. C. Sheely told the group: "There is no question in the court's mind but that you were operating these machines for gambling. But the cases are more serious, because they involve juveniles. You may not know it, but the activities at your establishments came to the court's notice as a result of complaints concerning juveniles, who were brought in because they were stealing money to play the gambling machines in your establishments. One stole $35 to play the machines in some of your places of business. If you come again before the court, the sentence may not stop with fines."

A number of other defendants also received sentences at court Saturday. So many were sentenced to jail that the new rescue truck of the Gettysburg Fire Department was pressed into service as a "paddy wagon."

Accomplice Sentenced

Edward Wetzel, Emmitsburg R. 1, charged with assault with intent to rob, armed assault with accomplices with intent to rob, and burglary, was sentenced to from five months to a year in jail and ordered to pay the costs. Since he had been in jail since March 29 awaiting sentence the court commuted the sentence from that date which makes it possible for Wetzel to be released as soon as he pays his costs. He will be released to army officials who want him as "absent without official leave." Wetzel was told to "get yourself straightened out with the Army and behave yourself hereafter."

The court told Wetzel and an accomplice in the "crime," George Wetzel, York, that "the court feels that neither of you had any intention of getting rough," when the pair with a third man entered Emmitsburg's store at Iron Springs. "I think you intended to steal what money was there and when you found Mrs. Emmitsburg there you would have dropped the idea, but your accomplice went ahead and you were a little slow in stopping him," George Wetzel was sentenced to from 90 days to one year in jail and ordered to pay the costs on the same charges as those on which Edward Wetzel was sentenced.

FLASH BLAZE MAKES FAMILY OF 8 HOMELESS

A flash fire, resulting from a gasoline explosion, destroyed the residence of the Ambrose Cool family, two miles southeast of Emmitsburg at Dry Bridge, at 11:20 Saturday morning leaving eight persons homeless.

The six-room frame dwelling, owned by Mrs. Harry Gearhart, Philadelphia, a sister-in-law of Cool, was burned to the ground, and all the household possessions were destroyed.

According to Emmitsburg Fire Chief John Hollinger, the Cool family was camping on an over-heated stove when one of the sons attempted to fill a gasoline washing machine tank. The gasoline exploded and almost immediately the frame structure was in flames.

400 Jars Of Food Lost
Cool rushed to the home of Ray Glass nearby and called the Fire Company which responded within a few minutes, but when they arrived at the scene there was little that could be done to save the house. Since there was no water available, the company pumped from booster tanks. Two pieces of equipment from the Emmitsburg company played water on the surrounding areas to prevent the fire from spreading.

Chief Hollinger estimated the damage at around $1,000. The residence was partially covered by insurance.

Household furnishings, which were totally destroyed since the Cools were forced to evacuate with only the clothes they were wearing, had no insurance. In addition to their personal effects, the Cools also lost over 400 quarts and half gallons of newly canned fruits and vegetables.

Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, chairman of the steering committee setting up plans for the county-wide celebration in which various organizations and individuals will be asked to take part, said the program is being held to honor the Korean war veterans, who fought for the United Nations, and to promote a better understanding of the United Nations in the light of the fact that the charter for the U.N. will be up for revision next year.

Churches, schools, clubs, libraries and other groups will be asked to participate in the United Nations Week program, the chairman of the committee said.

Store window displays are planned as are other events with the climax of the week to be the program scheduled for October 24 at which Dr. Heindel will speak. That program is to be held at the Peace Light.

LARGEST CROWD FOR CAMPFIRE

The largest attendance for any Campfire program in the 12 years the summer Sunday evening series has been presented was attracted Sunday evening when the Western Maryland color and sound film on the Lincoln pageant presented here last October was shown publicly for the first time.

Approximately 400 persons attended the program which was the last of their series of six presented this summer under the direction of Dr. Frederick Tilberg, National Park historian.

Before the Western Maryland film, a documentary presentation was made in a film on reaction to the Lincoln address in Civil War days. Placed in a country store setting, comment on the Lincoln address including editorial reactions in the press of that day was reviewed.

The Western Maryland picture, which ran about 15 minutes, devoted much of its footage to the arrival of the Lincoln train at the Carlisle St. station, the scenes and the Wills House, the march to the cemetery and the exercises there highlighted by Ray Middleton.

Fatal Accident On Lincoln Highway Sunday; Trucker Hospitalized In 2nd Crash

A 26-year-old Orrstown R. 1 man was fatally injured and a man who escaped injury when his truck overturned later was hurt when another car struck his upset vehicle, according to reports by local state police on accidents investigated by them on Adams County highways over the week end.

Richard J. Cummings, Orrstown R. 1, died at 5 o'clock Sunday morning at the Chambersburg Hospital of a fractured skull suffered when his car struck a guard rail post at 12:55 o'clock Sunday morning 14 miles west of here on the Lincoln Highway and he was thrown from the vehicle.

State police said Cummings, traveling alone, passed two cars while headed west in the Caladonia area. As Cummings cut back into his own lane of traffic, after passing the other cars, he apparently lost control of his auto. It skidded across the highway and hit the last pole in a series holding a guard rail. Cummings was apparently thrown from the vehicle by the impact with the guard rail. He was found on the highway while the car continued down a 15-foot embankment. He was removed to the Chambersburg Hospital where death occurred four hours after the crash. The Franklin County coroner said no inquest will be held.

Blame Heat For Drop In Travel On Field

The extreme heat over the weekend was credited with the drop in tourist travel over the battlefield below the figure set the previous weekend.

National Cemetery Superintendent John Riddle said the total Saturday was 5,052 and included 60 U. S. Marine Corps Reserves traveling in military trucks. Sunday's total was 3,933 and included 119 persons riding in three buses for weekend total of 9,035.

ABBOTTSTOWN OBSERVANCE OF FOUNDING ENDS

Payment of peppercorn to descendants of John Abbott, founder of Abbottstown, as rental fee for the grounds on which now stands St. John's Lutheran Church and its cemetery, was made Sunday morning in the church as part of the three-day celebration marking the community's 200th anniversary.

The peppercorn was presented by the pastor, Rev. L. J. Karschnen, to John Abbott Walls, Baltimore, and Mrs. Gilbert Zeigler, the only descendant still living in Abbottstown.

The original church deed, dated June 4, 1770, specified the transfer was made for the "consideration of five shillings and the payment to Abbot (Abbott) or his heirs of one peppercorn forever, if lawfully demanded, on the first day of May of every year."

Forgotten For Years
The stipulation apparently was forgotten by the congregation for 176 years until May 5, 1946, when the ritual was resumed and one peppercorn was paid to Mrs. Zeigler. The ceremony was repeated the following year with Francis Carns, Hanover, receiving the rental. No payment had been made since then.

Peppercorn was described as a berry or fruit of tropical pepper plants of an inconsiderable value.

The community's celebration opened Friday evening with an address by Adams County Judge W. C. Sheely and was followed by an historical pageant "As the Crossroads" at the public school playground.

The pageant, which was repeated Saturday night, was attended by approximately 2,000 persons and included a cast of 200. The nine episodes and 23 scenes depicting the growth of the community were directed by Mrs. Lillian Mickey Juditz.

The program Saturday afternoon honored John Abbott and his descendants, J. W. Thoman and the alumni of his former normal school and principals and alumni of the Abbottstown High School.

It included: Addresses by John Abbott Walls, Baltimore; Dr. P. M. Harbold, Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster; and Dr. Harry W. Gross, Valley Stream, N. Y. Group singing was led by J. W. Yoder, Huntingdon.

The bi-centennial closed Sunday evening with an Ancestral Commemorative Hour featuring an address by Willis W. Eisenhart, general chairman of the arrangements committee.

The Reynolds car was demolished with police estimating the damage to the 1936 vehicle at $350. The Trent truck was demolished with police setting the damage at $900.

No estimate was given on the damage to the 1951 sedan. Police are continuing their search for the driver of that vehicle. Ownership of the car could not immediately be determined, police said.

Two Navy Men Hurt

Two navy ensigns were injured at 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in an accident seven miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. Police said E. May Rhodes, 66, Emmitsburg R. D., stopped on the highway to permit other cars to pass before making a left turn. Miss Rhodes made the turn when traffic ahead of her cleared. An auto driven by Ensign William Cook Hutchinson, 24, Washington D. C., headed north, cut to the left however, when he saw the Rhodes car turning, and smashed head-on into a south bound car operated by Richard Reichler, 20, Sunbury.

David Mordy, Washington D. C., one of the occupants of the Hutchinson car, suffered lacerations of the forehead. Al Hurn, also an ensign from Washington, suffered a fracture of the nose and lacerations of the face. Both were treated by Dr. Williams of Emmitsburg.

$2,400 Crash

Police said damage to the Hutchinson car amounted to $2,000 and to the Reichler car, $400. Miss Rhodes was already off the road onto a side road when the smash-up occurred. Ensign Hutchinson (Continued on Page 2)

Mercury Hits 100 Sunday And Sets 51-Year Record

Setting a 51-year heat record for August 30, the month went into local weather records today as the driest August since 1944 and the first August since 1948 to see 100-degree weather here.

The average daily high was 86.45 degrees and the average daily low reading was 59.8 degrees. The extremes were 48 degrees, reached twice, and the 100 degrees recorded on Sunday.

Only 1.77 Inches Of Rain

On August 30 last year the high here was 91 degrees. The 100-degree reading taken yesterday was the highest ever recorded here on that date since continuous records were initiated in 1903. The nearest approach to that kind of heat was in 1921 when the high was 95.

Measurable amounts of rain fell on only nine days this month and on the heaviest day of rain there was a total of only .66 inches. The total for the month was 1.77 inches making it the driest August here since 1944 when the month received only 1.21 inches. Normal here is 4.01 inches, leaving this month 2.44 inches short on rainfall.

The August figures bring to 30.96 inches the total rainfall for the first eight months of the year and cut the surplus of rainfall accumulated in the spring and early summer to 4.33 inches above normal so far this year.

Sales Tax Effective Tuesday; State Asks Full Cooperation

HARRISBURG (AP)—Businessmen and the public were called on today to cooperate with the state in order to quickly iron out all wrinkles in the sales tax which Pennsylvanians begin paying after midnight.

However, state officials think it will take months to work out all the complications certain to be brought on by the new one per cent levy on most retail sales.

"I promise that the Department of Revenue will do everything it can to cooperate with business people and I urge that business and the public help us work things out harmoniously," said Otto F. Messner, secretary of the State Revenue Department. The department is charged with collection of the tax.

Asks For Patience

"If there is that type of teamwork, I have the feeling that this new tax will not be too unpalatable," Messner asserted.

"No new law involving a collection of a tax can be put into operation without complications, misunderstandings and mistakes," Messner said in calling for "a lot of patience" by retailers and consumers.

The tax, applicable only to sales over 11 cents was authorized by the 1953 State Legislature as the means to raise 135 million dollars during the present two-year fiscal period and to balance the state budget. It is effective for two years only and its proceeds are for educational purposes only.

It specifically exempts thousands of items with food and clothing in general the major ones.

"I think we ought to remember that a score of other states have not only a higher sales tax than Pennsylvania will have but a personal income tax besides," Messner pointed out. "In fact, there are now only five states that charge neither sales or income taxes."

Pennsylvania's new sales tax will be collected by the retailer who must register with the Revenue Department and display a registration certificate. They will be allowed to keep three per cent of the tax money they collect as payment for the additional bookkeeping that is necessary.

TOWN POLICE FAIRLY BUSY OVER WEEKEND

Borough police had a fairly busy weekend.

Saturday morning at 10:45 o'clock they escorted home the first unit of the local Pennsylvania National Guard, returning from two weeks at Indiantown Gap. Saturday afternoon at 12:10 o'clock they escorted the second group of guardsmen through the town.

At 1 o'clock a borough officer had to relieve four juveniles of a BB gun they were firing in an alley back of Carlisle St.

At 2 o'clock Samuel Weikert, Steinhilber Ave., reported his wife had found a pair of shoes near their garage on Queen St. Police investigated, found the shoes were part of the property of Charles Heller looted from a car parked at the Heller and Keller garage sometime Friday night. The shoes were returned to Heller while police continued to search for the suit, shirt and other clothing taken at the same time.

At 2:30 police were asked to search for a Juan Orkin, charged by a Biglerville resident with having that did not belong to him. Police found Orkin had left town by Greyhound bus at noon.

At 9:30 o'clock Saturday night Fred Walters, Gettysburg R. 3, reported that $9 in quarters and dimes had been removed from the glove compartment of his car on Wednesday night while the car was parked on Steinhilber Ave., near the spot where the clothing of Charles Heller had been stolen from another vehicle. The rear window of his car had been open the night the money was stolen, Walters said.

Seminary Grad To Be Loysville Pastor

The Loysville Lutheran Church will be headed by a new pastor, the Rev. Vernon I. Naugle, after September 1, it was announced Sunday by members of the charge.

The Rev. Mr. Naugle will replace the Rev. Edwin Dr. Freed, who resigned to assume a teaching position at Gettysburg College, and his charge will include the Lutheran Churches of Loysville, Ellitsburg, Mount Zion, and the Tressler Lutheran Children's home, Loysville.

The new minister is a native of Selinsgrove, where his father has served as Lutheran pastor for many years. He also has a sister who is preparing at New York University for missionary service in India.

The Rev. Mr. Naugle is a graduate of Lewisburg High School, class of 1946; Bucknell University, class of 1950; and Gettysburg Theological Seminary, class of 1953. He was ordained at Messiah Lutheran Church, in Philadelphia, May 27.

DROUGHT HURTS ARENDTSTVILLE

Sterling Sell, Arendtsville, superintendent of water, warns Arendtsville residents in a display advertisement today, that the severity of the present drought is "taxing water facilities to the limit." While no new restrictions are being placed on the use of water, Mr. Sell reports that there is a very strong possibility of such action unless citizens voluntarily exercise good judgment.

The extremely dry weather has increased danger of timber and grass fires, and superfluous water use increases the hazards arising from the situation.

Neighboring communities in many areas are already under the tightest sort of supervision, as the record dry spell continues and firemen in Adams County and in border Maryland districts have had continual activity, particularly in farm dwellings, barns, fields, and surrounding areas. Extraordinary care is urged to prevent fires.

FLASH BLAZE MAKES FAMILY OF 8 HOMELESS

A flash fire, resulting from a gasoline explosion, destroyed the residence of the Ambrose Cool family, two miles southeast of Emmitsburg at Dry Bridge, at 11:20 Saturday morning leaving eight persons homeless.

The six-room frame dwelling, owned by Mrs. Harry Gearhart, Philadelphia, a sister-in-law of Cool, was burned to the ground, and all the household possessions were destroyed.

According to Emmitsburg Fire Chief John Hollinger, the Cool family was canning on an over-heated stove when one of the sons attempted to fill a gasoline washing machine tank. The gasoline exploded and almost immediately the frame structure was in flames.

400 Jars Of Food Lost

Cool rushed to the home of Ray Glass nearby and called the Fire Company which responded within a few minutes, but when they arrived at the scene there was little that could be done to save the house. Since there was no water available, the company pumped from booster tanks. Two pieces of equipment from the Emmitsburg company played water on the surrounding areas to prevent the fire from spreading.

Chief Hollinger estimated the damage at around $7,000. The residence was partially covered by insurance.

Household furnishings, which were totally destroyed since the Cools were forced to evacuate with only the clothes they were wearing, had no insurance. In addition to their personal effects, the Cools also lost over 400 quarts and half gallons of newly canned fruits and vegetables.

DR. HEINDEL TO SPEAK OCT. 24

Dr. Richard Heindel, a student at Gettysburg College with the class of 1933 and now a member of the United Nations Division of the U. S. State Department, will be the speaker October 24 during a county-wide United Nations Festival to be held the week of October 18 through 24.

Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, chairman of the steering committee setting up plans for the county-wide celebration in which various organizations and individuals will be asked to take part, said the program is being held to honor the Korean war veterans, who fought for the United Nations, and to promote a better understanding of the United Nations in the light of the fact that the charter for the U.N. will be up for revision next year.

Churches, schools, clubs, libraries and other groups will be asked to participate in the United Nations Week program, the chairman of the committee said.

Store window displays are planned as are other events with the climax of the week to be the program scheduled for October 24 at which Dr. Heindel will speak. That program is to be held at the Peace Light.

LARGEST CROWD FOR CAMPFIRE

The largest attendance for any Campfire program in the 12 years the summer Sunday evening series has been presented was attracted Sunday evening when the Western Maryland color and sound film on the Lincoln pageant presented here last October was shown publicly for the first time.

Approximately 400 persons attended the program which was the last of the series of six presented this summer under the direction of Dr. Frederick Tilberg, National Park historian.

Before the Western Maryland film, a documentary presentation was made in a film on reaction to the Lincoln address in Civil War days. Placed in a country store setting, comment on the Lincoln address including editorial reactions in the press of that day was reviewed.

The Western Maryland picture, which ran about 15 minutes, devoted much of its footage to the arrival of the Lincoln train at the Carlisle St. station, the scenes and the Wills House, the march to the cemetery and the exercises there highlighted by Ray Middleton.

Fatal Accident On Lincoln Highway Sunday; Trucker Hospitalized In 2nd Crash

A 26-year-old Orrstown R. 1 man was fatally injured and a man who escaped injury when his truck overturned later was hurt when another car struck his upset vehicle, according to reports by local state police on accidents investigated by them on Adams County highways over the weekend.

The extreme heat over the weekend was credited with the drop in tourist travel over the battlefield below the figure set the previous weekend.

National Cemetery Superintendent John Riddle said the total Saturday was 5,062 and included 60 U. S. Marine Corps Reserves traveling in military trucks. Sunday's total was 3,983 and included 119 persons riding in three buses for weekend total of 9,035.

BLAME HEAT FOR DROP IN TRAVEL ON 'FIELD

Richard J. Cummings, Orrstown R. 1, died at 5 o'clock Sunday morning at the Chambersburg Hospital of a fractured skull suffered when his car struck a guard rail post at 12:55 o'clock Sunday morning 14 miles west of here on the Lincoln Highway and he was thrown from the vehicle.

State police said Cummings, traveling alone, passed two cars while headed west in the Caledonia area. As Cummings cut back into his own lane of traffic, after passing the other cars, he apparently lost control of his auto. It skidded across the highway and hit the last pole in a series holding a guard rail. Cummings was apparently thrown from the vehicle by the impact with the guard rail. He was found on the highway while the car continued down a 15-foot embankment. He was removed to the Chambersburg Hospital where death occurred four hours after the crash. The Franklin County coroner said no inquest will be held.

Seek Witnesses

State police today asked the occupants or driver of a 1951 green Dodge sedan, said to be one of the cars being passed by Cummings, to contact the local substation to give information on what they may have witnessed at the scene.

In another accident at 10 o'clock Saturday night, two miles west of Fairfield on the Zora Rd., John Trent, 54, Lantz, Md., escaped injury when his truck rolled over twice, but a few moments later, while he was standing beside the vehicle, inspecting the damage, another car struck the truck from the side opposite to Mr. Trent. The truck crashed down on him hurling him to the road. He suffered a fracture of the pelvis and a number of bruises.

State Police said Trent was driving west when he ran off the right side of the highway, and struck a concrete culvert. The truck body truck rolled over several times before coming to rest against an embankment.

Driver Flees Scene

When the truck came to rest it was blocking the west bound lane of traffic and part of the east bound lane.

Moments after the accident, just after Trent had crawled out of the smashed cab and standing alongside his truck, John O. Reynolds, 56, Waynesboro, attempted to pass the wrecked truck. As Reynolds started to pass, so did a 1951 sedan, traveling east. The sedan struck the truck, toppling it on Trent, and knocking the left front off the sedan. The sedan then sideswiped Reynolds' car and continued on for half a mile, driving on the drum of the lost wheel, before the driver abandoned the vehicle and apparently took to his heels.

Reynolds was unhurt in the crash. His wife suffered contusions of the upper left arm. She and Mr. Trent were removed to the Warner hospital by ambulance. She was treated at the hospital. Mr. Trent was admitted as a patient.

Searching For Driver

The Reynolds car was demolished with police estimating the damage to the 1936 vehicle at $350. The Trent truck was demolished with police setting the damage at $900.

No estimate was given on the damage to the 1951 sedan. Police are continuing their search for the driver of that vehicle. Ownership of the car could not immediately be determined, police said.

Two Navy Men Hurt

Two navy ensigns were injured at 5:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in an accident seven miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd.

Police said E. May Rhodes, 66, Emmitsburg R. D., stopped on the highway to permit other cars to pass before making a left turn. Miss Rhodes made the turn when traffic ahead of her cleared. An auto driven by Ensign William Cook Hutchinson, 24, Washington D. C., headed north, cut to the left before warning, when he saw the Rhodes car turning, and smashed head-on into a south bound car operated by Richard Reichley, 20, Sunbury.

David Mordy, Washington D. C., one of the occupants of the Hutchinson car, suffered lacerations of the forehead. Al Hutin, also an ensign from Washington, suffered a fracture of the nose and lacerations of the face. Both were treated by Dr. Williams of Emmitsburg.

$2,400 Crash

Police said damage to the Hutchinson car amounted to $2,000 and to the Reichley car, $400. Miss Rhodes was already off the road onto a side road when the smash-up occurred. Ensign Hutchinson (Continued on Page 2)

Reds Expected To Release 500 More Americans Than The 3,313 They Announced

By JIM BECKER

PANMUNJOM (AP)—Another 150 Americans, mostly sergeants and officers, were freed today amid indications the Communists may send back up to 500 more Americans than the 3,313 originally promised.

The Reds also released 250 South Koreans on this 27th day of the Korean War prisoner exchange.

The Communists promised to send back 400 prisoners tomorrow—100 Americans, 25 British, 20 Turks, 5 Australians and another 250 South Koreans.

One of the Britons to be handed over Tuesday will be Lt. Col. James P. Carne top-ranking British officer held by the Communists, Red newspapermen said.

Carne, commander of a battalion of one of Britain's great fighting units—the Gloucestershire Regiment—was captured in April 1951 in the fierce Imjin river battle.

Made Gallant Stand

Surrounded by Reds, most of the men of the 1st Battalion were killed or captured in a gallant stand against overwhelming forces. Only a few trickled back to Allied lines.

The Communist Peiping radio said Monday that Carne was awaiting repatriation at Kaesong, the Red holding point just north of Panmunjom, and was in "splendid physical shape."

Meanwhile, Allied and Communist delegates to the Military Armistice Commission met at this truce site in one of their longest sessions. After an hour and 49 minutes, the delegates recessed without setting a date for another meeting.

There was no announcement of what was discussed.

The meeting was called at Communist request.

1,000 Await Freedom

Returning Americans Monday raised hopes that the Reds would return more U. S. soldiers than they originally promised.

The Reds have returned 2,827 Americans, leaving 486 still scheduled.

The assault and battery charge against Howard W. Ankney, Hanover, R. 3, was continued to October 19, but it will be dropped if costs are paid by that time. The prosecutor in the case, Claude S. Wagner, appeared to ask the court if the case could be dropped if each paid half the costs. The court remarked: "So you hit and made up."

The settlement was allowed but when it developed that neither had enough money for the costs, the case was continued, with the two to pay the costs before October.

The assault and battery charge against Walter R. Clapper, East Berlin, R. 2, was continued to November term of court and Clapper was directed to renew bail. The prosecutor, John Benner, who resides with Clapper, and was traveling with him Saturday, said he still wanted the case to go to trial when asked whether he and Clapper had resolved their differences. The case involved also a constable's error. The constable had gone to the Benner home to give him notice to appear for a hearing previously on the Clapper case. The constable found Clapper and he said he'd tell Benner. The constable made a return that he had subpoenaed Benner. As a result, when Benner did not arrive when scheduled, a process was issued. The process was dropped Saturday morning and the constable was told he could not collect any costs in the case.

A motion in arrest of judgment because of conviction on insufficient evidence was presented for Neil before sentencing, and was overruled. A similar motion for Miss Jean Stearns, Carlisle St., also scheduled to be sentenced on a morals charge, was presented and the court set September 21 as the date for argument on the motion, postponing sentence meantime.

No Shortage Here In Water Supply

John Long, manager of the Gettysburg Municipal Authority, said there is no prospect of a water shortage for Gettysburg in the near future.

Marsh Creek is low, he added, but water is running over the breast of the dam at the pumping station and there are wells to supplement the town supply if the flow in the stream falls below local needs. Several leaks in the dam were listed for repair today but only as a precautionary measure.

Mr. Long said many communities in the state are not so fortunate. He was told at a state convention of water works operators at State College last week that a number of communities face critical water shortages and supplies for many communities are on the verge of being exhausted unless rain arrives in a few days.

The assault and battery charge against Howard W. Ankney, Hanover R. 3, was continued to October 19 when it will be dropped if costs are paid by that time. The prosecutor in the case, Claude S. Wagner, appeared to ask the court if the case could be dropped if each paid half the costs. The court remark: "So you hit and made up."

The settlement was allowed but when it developed that neither had enough money for the costs, the case was continued, with the two to pay the costs before October.

Sent To Pen
Robert Hartlaub, 24, Hanover R. 1, was sentenced to pay $5 for the use of the county and the costs and sent to Eastern Penitentiary for from 2 to 4 years, with August 22 the starting date of his sentence for his part in the looting of the home of John J. Constable's Error
The assault and battery charge against Walter R. Clapper, East Berlin R. 2, was continued to November term of court and Clapper was directed to renege bail. The prosecutor, John Benner, who resides with Clapper, and was traveling with him Saturday, said he still wanted the case to go to trial when asked whether he and Clapper had resolved their differences. The case involved also a constable's error. The constable had gone to the Benner home to give him notice to appear for a hearing previously on the Clapper case. The constable found Clapper and he said he'd tell Benner. The constable made a return that he had subpoenaed Benner. As a result, when Benner did not arrive when scheduled, a process was issued. The process was dropped Saturday morning and the constable was told he could not collect any costs in the case.

James M. Nell Jr., Gettysburg R. 5, was sentenced to six months in jail and ordered to pay the costs on a charge of prison breach. On a morals charge he was sentenced to six months in jail, to begin at the expiration of the prison breach sentence, and pay the costs.

A motion in arrest of judgment because of conviction on insufficient evidence was presented for Nell before sentencing, and was overruled. A similar motion for Miss Jean Steimour, Carlisle St., also scheduled to be sentenced on a morals charge, was presented and the court set September 21 as the date for argument on the motion, postponing sentence meantime.

17 Lose Lives In Heat Wave No Break In Sight; Forecast Says Hot; May Rain Tuesday

By The Associated Press
The heat wave that has gripped Pennsylvania and the Eastern United States for a week entered the seventh day today—and there's no break in sight. The forecast is the same: hot.

In the Keystone State, 17 deaths were attributed to the heat over the weekend. Twelve persons died in other accidents.

Fifteen of the heat victims were from Philadelphia where the weather has been blamed by Coroner Joseph Ominsky for 43 deaths since Tuesday.

The Philadelphia Weather Bureau said there is a chance of showers Tuesday night, but the stagnant mass of hot air which blankets the eastern half of the nation will stay.

100 In Philadelphia
Record highs were reported Sunday for Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Harrisburg. The temperature hit 99 Sunday in Uniontown, equalling the all-time high set for forty years ago—Aug. 30, 1913.

The high in Philadelphia was 100, a record for the date. On Saturday it was 98, highest ever for an Aug. 29. The thermometer also hit 100 in York, Selinsgrove and Middletown.

In Harrisburg, the high was 98 while in Pittsburgh it was 96.1. The former records for Aug. 29 in the two cities were 94 in the Capitol and 95 in the Steel City.

The temperature also soared to 94 in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre and 95 in Allentown. The lowest reported temperatures were 91 in Blairsville and Phillipsburg.

Here is a run-down on the fatalities:

Heat Fatal To 17
Attributed to the heat (17): Elizabeth Mellon, 6 months; Mrs. Ida Balthaser, 70; Elijah McKean, 61; Cherry Lee Samuels, 56; Harry Murray, 75; Edward Donnelly, 48; Michael Feecey, 42; Katie Chalmers, 63; Sylvester Pote, 53; Bernard Bialek, 39; Joseph McCree, 72; Florence Fogarty, 76; Mrs. Irene Wolckens, 86; Mrs. Eva Weiner, 74; and Alfred Mahoney, 70—all of Philadelphia; Dr. George M. Katzman, 53, Penn. Wymore, Eugene Krick, 74, Reading.

Traffic (7)
A truck-auto collision near Uniontown Saturday killed four Fayette County men, all riding in the auto. They were Gerald Raymond, 28, of Smock; John H. Moon Jr., 26, and Harry Q. Shanabarger, 42, both of Little Brownfield; and Dewey Rankin, 45, Brownsville.

Richard J. Cummings, 25, of Orrstown, R.D. 1, Franklin County, died in Chambersburg Hospital seven hours after his car tumbled over an embankment on U. S. 30 Sunday.

Tactor Overturns
A 43-year-old McDonald farmer, Theodore Beliskus, was killed Saturday when his tractor overturned in South Fayette Township near Washington.

William S. Parker, Warriors Mark, Huntingdon County, was killed Friday night in an auto crash near Phillipsburg.

Miscellaneous (5)
A light plane crashed into a field 25 miles north of Butler Sunday, killing a Grove City man and his 22-year-old fiancée. They were V. E. Bell and Olivia Drabe of Fenelon.

A six-month-old infant, Charlene Henigan, was found dead Saturday night in her Wilmerding home, apparently the victim of electrocution. The coroner's office said the baby was found near an electric floor outlet attached to a lamp.

Reading Man Drowns
A 29-year-old Reading man, Edwin Hoffmeister, drowned Saturday in the Susquehanna River at Fishing Creek, Lancaster County, after his canoe capsized.

In Allentown, Adolph Grollen, 35, of Allentown, was struck and killed Saturday by an Ironbound Railroad train near that Eastern Pennsylvania city.

No included in the weekend total is a Lancaster County teenager who died Sunday from injuries suffered in an auto-truck collision at Blue Ball, near Lancaster, on Aug. 25.

The victim was 18-year-old Lucy Martin of East Earl R. 1. Killed in the same accident was Verna Mae Weaver, 17, also of East Earl R. 1.

Miss Martin was Lancaster County's 20th traffic fatality in 1953.

No runner-up was selected.

Mrs. Pennsylvania weighs 115 and is 5 feet 4½ inches. Other measurements are bust, 34½, waist, 28, of Smock; John H. Moon Jr., 26, and Harry Q. Shanabarger, 42, both of Little Brownfield; and Dewey Rankin, 45, Brownsville.

"MEANING OF A SMILE"

The other day a friend asked me . . . the meaning of a smile . . . and I, in search of adjectives . . . said everything worthwhile . . . a warm embrace told with the face . . . a sign of real good will . . . a way of spreading untold cheer . . . to every Jack and Jill . . . a story told without a word . . . encouragement and bliss . . . a chaser of the woes of life . . . a soft and tender kiss . . . a wondrous greeting that will bring . . . two strangers close together . . . expression of the kindly heart . . . that clears life's stormy weather . . . a spray of starlight and a glow . . . a world of hope and good . . . the language of the universe . . . a sign of brotherhood . . . a gift of God we all should wear . . . it always is in style . . . so goes my small conception . . . the meaning of a smile.

noon about 4 o'clock, and as they were traveling on South Queen St. a blaze was noticed. Upon investigation, it was discovered that a storage building in the rear of the Littlestown Throwing Company on Monarch St. was burning. Three booster lines were used to extinguish the fire. Rubbish burning in a nearby field had caused the fire to spread to the building. Damage was estimated at $400. The building is owned by N. E. Coxon.

The Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ Reformed Church, was in charge of the 8:30 a.m. worship service in Redeemer's Reformed Church on Sunday. The Rev. Mr. Koons delivered the sermon in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds who is confined to his home due to illness. The following coming events have been listed for Redeemer's Church: Sunday, Sept. 6, 8:30 a.m., last early worship service; Sept. 13, 10:30 a.m., annual celebration of Harvest Home; Sept. 26, 9:30 a.m., Rally Day in the Sunday School; September 27, 10:30 a.m., fall preparatory service; October 4, 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., Holy Communion services.

Samuel Snyder, Littlestown R. D. president of the Third District Sunday School Association and a teacher in St. Luke's Sunday School near White Hall, was the guest teacher in the adult department of Redeemer's Sunday School Sunday.

17 Lose Lives In Heat Wave No Break In Sight; Forecast Says Hot; May Rain Tuesday

By The Associated Press
The heat wave that has gripped Pennsylvania and the Eastern United States for a week entered the seventh day today—and there's no break in sight. The forecast is the same: hot.

In the Keystone State, 17 deaths were attributed to the heat over the weekend. Twelve persons died in other accidents.

Fifteen of the heat victims were from Philadelphia where the weather has been blamed by Coroner Joseph Ominsky for 43 deaths since Tuesday.

The Philadelphia Weather Bureau said there is a chance of showers Tuesday night, but the stagnant mass of hot air which blankets the eastern half of the nation will stay.

100 In Philadelphia
Record highs were reported Sunday for Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Harrisburg. The temperature hit 99 Sunday in Uniontown, equaling the all-time high set for forty years ago—Aug. 30, 1913.

The high in Philadelphia was 100, a record for the date. On Saturday it was 96, highest ever for an Aug. 29. The thermometer also hit 100 in York, Selinsgrove and Middletown.

In Harrisburg, the high was 98 while in Pittsburgh it was 96.1. The former records for Aug. 30 in the two cities were 94 in the Capitol and 96 in the Steel City.

The temperature also soared to 96 in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre and 95 in Allentown. The lowest reported temperatures were 91 in Blairsville and Phillipsburg.

Here is a run-down on the fatalities:

Heat Fatal To 17
Attributed to the heat (17): Elizabeth Mellon, 6 months; Mrs. Ida Balthaser, 70; Elijah McKan, 61; Cherry Lee Samuels, 56; Harry Murray, 75; Edward Donnelly, 45; Michael Feeney, 42; Katie Chalmers, 63; Sylvester Pote, 58; Bernard Bialek, 39; Joseph McCredy, 72; Florence Fogarty, 76; Mrs. Irene Wvolskens, 66; Mrs. Eva Weiner, 74, and Alfred Mahoney, 70—all of Philadelphia; Dr. George M. Katzman, 53, Penn Wynne; Eugene Krick, 74, Reading.

Traffic (7):
A truck-auto collision near Uniontown Saturday killed four Fayette County men, all riding in the auto. They were Gerald Raymond, 28, of Smock; John H. Moon Jr., 36 and Harry O. Shanabarger, 42, both of Little Brownfield; and Dewey Rankin, 45, Brownsville.

Richard J. Cummings, 25, of Orrstown, R. D. 1, Franklin County, died in Chambersburg Hospital seven hours after his car tumbled over an embankment on U. S. 30 Sunday.

Tactor Overturns
A 43-year-old McDonald farmer, Theodore Beltskus, was killed Saturday when his tractor overturned in South Fayette Township near Washington.

William S. Parker, Warriors Mark, Huntingdon County, was killed Friday night in an auto crash near Philipsburg.

Miscellaneous (5):
A light plane crashed into a field 25 miles north of Butler Sunday, killing a Grove City man and his 22-year-old fiancée. They were V. E. Bell and Olivia Drabe of Fenelon.

A six-month-old infant, Charlene Henigan, was found dead Saturday night in her Wilmerding home, apparently the victim of electrocution. The coroner's office said the baby was found near an electric floor outlet attached to a lamp.

Reading Man Drowns
A 29-year-old Reading man, Irvin Hoffmaster, drowned Saturday in the Susquehanna River at Fishing Creek, Lancaster County, after his canoe capsized.

In Allentown, Adolph Groller, 35, of Allentown, was struck and killed Saturday by an Ironton Railroad train near that Eastern Pennsylvania city.

Not included in the weekend total is a Lancaster County teen-ager who died Sunday from injuries suffered in an auto-truck collision at Blue Ball, near Lancaster, on Aug. 25.

The victim was 18-year-old Lucy Martin of East Earl R. 1. Killed in the same accident was Verna Mae Weaver, 17, also of East Earl R. 1.

Miss Martin was Lancaster County's 20th traffic fatality in 1953.

Ford brings you fine-car Power Steering at a new low price!

Now you can have America's newest, most improved power steering—Ford Master-Guide—for $40 less than any other power steering in the low-price field.

Yes, you're reading right! Ford has added a brand new "Worth More" to its long list of fine-car features . . . Ford Master-Guide—the newest and finest in power steering . . . a system exclusive in Ford's field! You're going to love this new kind of steering! A finger turns the wheel even when the car's standing still. Imagine how helpful this can be whenever you're tightly parked! Yet on the road Ford Master-Guide, unlike some systems, gives you the same natural "feel" you'd have without power steering. Master-Guide is safer, too. It takes hold only when needed. Try Ford Master-Guide today!

Handling and parking's a pushover! With the car standing still, you can "dial" the steering wheel with one finger . . . Master-Guide supplies the "muscle" for you! Of course, Fords have always been easy to handle, steer and park. But with Master-Guide "muscling in" when you need it, you use up to 75% less effort!

See it . . . Value Check it . . . Test Drive it today!

NO RADICAL CHANGE IN DRIVING HABITS

You get the same kind of "feel" you get with ordinary steering systems, so there's no need to learn how to drive all over again with Ford Master-Guide. This natural feel comes mainly from having the force applied close to the front wheels. Steering ratio doesn't change; you always have complete control

SO SIMPLE . . . SO SAFE! . . .

Master-Guide lets you turn with ease, steer as you're used to! Driving on "shoulders" and rutted roads is even safer. And should the hydraulic system ever lose its power (which is highly unlikely due to Ford's simple design), the conventional steering system remains operative as in cars without power steering.

Out Of The Past
From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
The Yellow Fever is still raging creatively at New Orleans, and the deaths are from two to three hundred per day. Notwithstanding the decreased population. The mortality is said to be greater than indicated by the daily report of burials. On Monday, the number of deaths is said to have been over 318; and on Tuesday, it exceeded 320. It is indeed an awful scourge upon that devoted city.

Married: On the 25th inst., by Rev. Jacob Egler, Mr. Ephraim
Wagner of Cumberland township,
Miss Lillian Wagner of Franklin township.

At the residence of Mr. R. Craighead, New York, by Rev. Mr. Coffey, Mr. William L. Crawford of Cam-brield county, to Miss Mary A.
Brennan of Adams County, Pa.

On Tuesday, at the residence of Mr. John O'Brien to Miss Eleanor Everhart—both of Franklin township.

First: On Monday evening's school fall past, eight of our children were started by the unusual cry of "Fire!" It was found to proceed from the back barn of the Hon. Moses McClean. It is a few moments it was completely enveloped in flames, rendering it impossible to save it or any of its contents. The fire in a few minutes communicated to the stable of the Editor of the "Sentinel," adjoining it. Both of these buildings were destroyed, except the walls. Mr. Mc-Clean's camp of crops and Mr. Harper's of stone by unextinguished flames on the part of the citizens and the unusual calmness of the night,
the flames were prevented from communicating to the buildings which surrounded the burning stables closely on all sides.

In Mr. McClean's barn there were about 50 bushels of wheat, 7 or 8 tons of hay, and his carriage—all destroyed. The loss is estimated at nearly $300. The building is fully insured. A horse was gotten out of the other stable. A small quantity of hay was consumed.

There is no doubt the fire was the work of an incendiary. The mind can scarcely conceive of so malignant an act, as to place the incendiary torch in the midst of so closely built a community.

Just Folks
By EDGAR A. GUEST
NIAGARA FALLS
I've seen Niagara Falls by day and night,
And this I know:
Across them on a slender rope,
drawn tight,
I'll never try to go.

I've heard the raging waters thundering down
And wondered why
To ride them in a barrel, for re-known,
Some want to try

I'm quite content their splendor to admire,
And this I'll say:
To brave their fury I have no desire
In any way.

I watch with awe the waters rushing on
And hear them roar,
And think God meant the fall to look upon
And nothing more.

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
INCENTIVE
To be born with incentive hidden away in one's make-up is to be born lucky! Luckier than if you had been given a fortune at birth, for incentive is a fortune, all wrapped up and ready for use. A fortune, unearned, can melt away in short order, but incentive to do things, and to be a somebody, increases with the years.

People with incentive are happy because they are inspired to want to do things and accomplish definite enterprises. Without incentive this democratic, liberty-loving people of America would never have been. Objectives mean nothing where incentive to strive, sacrifice, and will-to-do are absent.

Incentive is the spark that lights
the fire to our dreams, making them real. It's a quality of life, without which we would all be either drones or idlers. Take the example of any notable life. Study and learn about it. You will discover it began with an over-mastering desire to do some specific thing—and from that one thing to a number of things—without end.

It was incentive that stirred the soul of Columbus and the early discoverers, as well as the pioneers that kept creeping west until all America became a vast settled region of happy human beings, forever seeking new worlds to conquer, new hardships to overcome.
It is what has created the genius of a free way of life.

Incentive can be cultivated. It's like a seed that is planted in fertile soil. It's also like a spark that starts the flame. Many people do not discover this valuable element until some one points it out to them. Often it is no more than a little encouragement, or some kindness, but once discovered, it increases and enlarges in one's whole system. It is the story of every success. It's being newly born!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Conquerors."

GOP POSITION HELD GOOD ON IMMIGRATION
By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Watkins
(R-Utah) told President Eisenhower today he believes the Republicans are in a "strong position" on the immigration issue and he urged delay in any recommendations for changes in the basic law.

In a letter to the President, Watkins described as "largely political" a move by Sen. Lehman (D-Lib-NY) for a drastic overhauling of the McCarran-Walter Act. The law was criticized in last year's presidential campaign by Eisenhower and former Gov. Adlai E.
Stevenson of Illinois, the Democratic nominee.

In April, Eisenhower asked for a congressional study of the law's operations looking toward a "fundamental revision" of the statute, about which he said he had received "a great many complaints."

Watkins, who heads a Senate-House immigration committee under-taking this study, wrote Eisenhower that he believes the special quota immigration act passed at this year's session to admit 216,000
European refugees and others
"makes care of population pressure areas as far as we probably can go in the next three years."

This special act, covering three years, falls somewhat short of Eisenhower's request. He sought authority to admit 240,000 in two years.

New Coach Saves
Boy From Drowning
BLOOMER, Wis. (AP)—Bloomer
high school's new athletic coach, Bob Buel of Erie, Pa., has endeared himself to this Wisconsin community by saving the life of a 12-year-old boy.

The 29-year-old University of Wisconsin and Franklin and Marshall College graduate arrived here about two weeks ago with his wife and five-year-old daughter.

The story was revealed yesterday of how Buel decided to take his family to the city's swimming pond Thursday. As the family neared the pond three excited youngsters ran up to tell about another boy, Jacob Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lowe, Tilden, who had disappeared in the water.

Buel found the youngster lying on the bottom in 10 feet of water.
He pulled him to shore and revived him by artificial respiration.

DOMESTIC REDS
'GREAT MENACE'
WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen.
Brownell said today domestic Communist are "a greater menace now than at any time" and that "I suppose there are more in labor unions than anywhere else."

In a copyrighted interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report, Brownell said the Reds "have gone underground
since the Smith Act trials started.
They are better organized, and detection is more difficult."

Eleven top Communist officials were convicted in 1949 of conspiring to violate the Smith Act, which makes it a crime to teach or advocate forcible overthrow of the U. S. government.

Brownell said the Communist party has lost about 75,000 members, bringing it down to about 25-30,000, since that trial and several others which followed it. But the 75,000, he added, "are obviously subject to the propaganda of the Communist agents."

The party members who remain, he said, are "organizing their forces more effectively. . . (and) their espionage activities are much more underground than they were."

10,218 Prisoners
Released by Reds
PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Communists have returned 10,218 Allied prisoners, including 2,567 Americans, as of today—the 27th day of the great Korean War proner

exchange.
The Reds originally promised to return 12,763 Allied soldiers—3,313 of them Americans—but last week they said the figure would be increased because it did not list soldiers captured in the last days of the war.

FLOODS SWAMP
LOWER TEXAS
COASTAL AREA
ROBSTOWN, Tex. (AP)—More than 3,500 persons were homeless today along the swamped lower Texas coast as rising water from ten days of deluge rains seeped into homes on the flat coastal plains.

At least 2,000 were evacuated in this farming community of 8,000 about 17 miles west of Corpus Christi. Many spent their second night in emergency shelter. They were joined by new refugees late last night as runoff from heavy afternoon thundershowers rushed into the water bound towns.

The number of homeless increased as intermittent thundershowers continued along the coast.
More rain was forecast. Steady west winds from the Gulf drove moist air inland.

Another town hard hit was Sinton, 28 miles north of Corpus Christi, where 450 were evacuated.
The south Texas flood was no great danger to life because the water rose slowly. It spread over vast acreages and was trapped behind drainage ditch levees, railroad embankments and other obstructions. Driving was slow.

HOLD MOTHER FOR SLAYING
WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A 38-year-old Williamsport woman was held in Lycoming County jail today on a charge of suspicion of murder in the death of her 2-months-old son.

Dist. Atty. Markin R. Knight said the woman, Dorothy Eleanor Hill, told him she placed the baby, Donald F. Hill, in the oven of a gas stove in her home last night, closed the door and turned on the gas.

"I thought the baby would be better off dead," Knight quoted the woman as saying.
Chief of Police John G. Good, filed the charge against the woman
after the baby was pronounced dead on arrival at Williamsport
exchange.

The U. N. command has delivered 50,117 North Koreans and 5,502 Chinese.
The Allies said they would return 69,000 North Koreans and 5,500 Chinese, in all, but have already exceeded the figure for Chinese, and have indicated they hold about 250 more.

Pennsylvanians and injuring two others.

The dead were identified as policeman; his wife, Almara, 43;

their son, William, 18; Paul Lazuk, 22, and Mildred Pylent, 19, both of Shenandoah.

Out Of The Past
From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
The Yellow Fever is still raging dreadfully at New Orleans, and the deaths are from two to three hundred per day, notwithstanding the decreased population. The mortality is said to be greater than indicated by the daily report of interments. On Monday the number of deaths is said to have been over 315; and on Tuesday it exceeded 300! It is indeed an awful scourge upon that devoted city!

Married: On the 25th inst., by Rev. Jacob Ziegler, Mr. Ephraim Whisler, of Cumberland township, to Miss Louisa Weikert, of Franklin township.

At the residence of Mr. R. Craighead, New York, by Rev. Mr. Coffey, Mr. William L. Craighead, of Cumberland county, to Miss Mary A. Brandon, of Adams County, Pa.

On Tuesday, by Rev. J. Ziegler, Mr. John Ogden to Miss Elenora Everhart—both of Franklin township.

Fire! On Monday evening, about half past eight o'clock our citizens were startled by the unusual cry of "Fire!" It was found to proceed from the brick barn of the Hon. Moses McClean. In a few moments it was completely enveloped in flames, rendering it impossible to save it or any of its contents. The fire in a few minutes communicated to the stable of the Editor of the "Sentinel," adjoining it. Both of these buildings were destroyed, except the walls. Mr. McClean's, being of brick and Mr. Harper's of stone. By unexampled labor on the part of the citizens, and the unusual calmness of the night, the flames were prevented from communicating to the buildings which surrounded the burning stables closely on all sides.

In Mr. McClean's barn there were about 50 bushels of wheat, 7 or 8 tons of hay, and his carriage—all destroyed. The loss is estimated at nearly $300. The building is fully insured. A horse was gotten out of the other stable. A small quantity of hay was consumed.

There is no doubt the fire was the work of an incendiary. The mind can scarcely conceive of so malignant an act, as to place the incendiary torch in the midst of so closely built a community.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
On Tuesday an excursion party numbering about 400, from Mifflin, Lewistown, and Newport, visited Gettysburg. The excursionists seemed to be of the better class, and spent the day in visiting the battlefield and points of interest around town.

The annual ordination of priests and deacons took place this week at Mt. St. Mary's College this week. Archbishop Gibbons officiated. Lewis Kumerant, of Gettysburg, was assistant master of ceremonies.

Free Lecture: Mr. Henry H. Grant, of Washington, D. C., will deliver a FREE Lecture on Phonography in the Public School building on High Street, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 3, at 7 1/2 o'clock; after which a class will be formed by a practical Reporter. Three evening lessons will be given each week in Short-hand.

TERMS: Gentlemen, $5 per month, or $40 per year of ten months; Ladies $3 per month or $25 per year, payable in advance.

Married: Hershey-Cluck — Aug. 30th, by Rev. Dr. Kieffer, Harvey J. Hershey to Miss Sadie E. Cluck, all of this vicinity.

Dean-Roth—Aug. 25, by Rev. J. A. Boll, Charles Francis Dean, of Mountpleasant township, to Miss Sara Susanna Roth, of Union township.

Just Received: At J. L. Schick's, corner of Baltimore St. and centre square, Gettysburg, a large assortment of Dress Goods of latest styles—Alpacas, Cashmeres, Poplins, &c., which will be sold at prices ranging from 15 to 25 cents. Call and examine.

Accident: On Thursday afternoon Alex D. Buehler, of this place, with two of his sisters, drove to his farm on the York pike, and intending to return in a few hours hitched the horse to the fence. A storm coming up, in an attempt to remove him to a shed, the horse became restive, broke loose and started on a run for home. Rev. Dr. Steck, with Mr.

Just Folks

NIAGARA FALLS

I've seen Niagara Falls by day and night,
And this I know:
Across them on a slender rope,
drawn tight,
I'll never try to go.

I've heard the raging waters thundering down
And wondered why
To ride them in a barrel, for reknown.
Some want to try

I'm quite content their splendor to admire,
And this I'll say:
To brave their fury I have no desire
In any way.

I watch with awe the waters rushing on
And hear them roar.
And think God meant the fall to look upon
And nothing more.

Today's Talk

To be born with incentive hidden away in one's make-up is to be born lucky! Luckier than if you had been given a fortune at birth, for incentive is a fortune, all wrapped up and ready for use. A fortune, inherited, can melt away in short order, but incentive to do things, and to be a somebody, increases with the years.

People with incentive are happy because they are inspired to want to do things and accomplish definite enterprises. Without incentive this democratic, liberty-loving people of America would never have been. Objectives mean nothing where incentive to strive, sacrifice, and will-to-do are absent.

Incentive is the spark that lights the fire to our dreams, making them real. It's a quality of life, without which we would all be either drones or idlers. Take the example of any notable life. Study and learn about it. You will discover it began with an over-mastering desire to do some specific thing—and from that one thing to a number of things—without end.

It was incentive that stirred the soul of Columbus and the early discoverers, as well as the pioneers that kept creeping west until all America became a vast settled region of happy human beings, forever seeking new worlds to conquer, new handicaps to overcome. It is what has created the genius of a free way of life.

Incentive can be cultivated. It's like a seed that is planted in fertile soil. It's also like a spark that starts the flame. Many people do not discover this valuable element until some one points it out to them. Often it is no more than a little encouragement, or some kindness, but once discovered, it increases and enlarges in one's whole system. It is the story of every success. It's being newly born!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Conquerors."

Eicholtz and several other persons were in an open spring wagon en route for town. The runaway in passing the wagon, struck the hind wheel of the latter with sufficient force to throw Dr. Steck from his seat into the road. He gathered himself up, somewhat surprised at the rude treatment, but gratified to find himself uninjured. The runaway horse reached Gettysburg with the carriage badly wrecked. Mr. B. and sisters returned in another conveyance.

The Grangers' picnic at Williams Grove on Thursday was the largest and most successful that has ever been held in the Cumberland Valley. Gen. GOP POSITION
HELD GOOD ON
IMMIGRATION

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Watkins (R-Utah) told President Eisenhower today he believes the Republicans are in a "strong position" on the immigration issue and he urged delay in any recommendations for changes in the basic law. In a letter to the President, Watkins described as "largely political" a move by Sen. Lehman (D-Lib-NY) for a drastic overhauling of the McCarran-Walter Act. The law was criticized in last year's presidential campaign by Eisenhower and former Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, the Democratic nominee.

In April, Eisenhower asked for a congressional study of the law's operations looking toward a "fundamental revision" of the statute, about which he said he had received "a great many complaints." Watkins, who heads a Senate-House immigration committee undertaking this study, wrote Eisenhower that he believes the special quota immigration act passed at this year's session to admit 216,000 European refugees and others "takes care of population pressure areas as far as we probably can go in the next three years."

This special act, covering three years, falls somewhat short of Eisenhower's request. He sought authority to admit 240,000 in two years.

New Coach Saves
Boy From Drowning

BLOOMER, Wis. (AP)—Bloomer high school's new athletic coach, Bob Buel of Erie, Pa., has endeared himself to this Wisconsin community by saving the life of a 12-year-old boy.

The 29-year-old University of Wisconsin and Franklin and Marshall College graduate arrived here about two weeks ago with his wife and five-year-old daughter.

The story was revealed yesterday of how Buel decided to take his family to the city's swimming pond Thursday. As the family neared the pond three excited youngsters ran up to tell about another boy, Jacob Lowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lowe, Tilden, who had disappeared in the water.

Buel found the youngster lying on the bottom in 10 feet of water. He pulled him to shore and revived him by artificial respiration.

DOMESTIC REDS
'GREAT MENACE'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell said today domestic Communists are "a greater menace now than at any time" and that "I suppose there are more in labor unions than anywhere else."

In a copyrighted interview with the magazine U. S. News and World Report, Brownell said the Reds "have gone underground since the Smith Act trials started. They are better organized, and detection is more difficult."

Eleven top Communist officials were convicted in 1949 of conspiring to violate the Smith Act, which makes it a crime to teach or advocate forcible overthrow of the U. S. government.

Brownell said the Communist party has lost about 75,000 members, bringing it down to about 25,000, since that trial and several others which followed it. But the 75,000, he added, "are obviously subject to the propaganda of the Communist agents."

The party members who remain, he said, are "organizing their forces more effectively. . . (and) their espionage activities are much more underground than they were."

10,218 Prisoners
Released By Reds

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Communists have returned 10,218 Allied prisoners, including 2,567 Americans, as of today—the 27th day of the great Korean War prisoner exchange. The Reds originally promised to return 12,763 Allied soldiers—3,313 of them Americans—but last week they said the figure would be increased because it did not list soldiers captured in the last days of the war.

The U. N. command has delivered 50,117 North Koreans and 5,502 Chinese.

The Allies said they would return 69,000 North Koreans and 5,500 Chinese, in all, but have already exceeded the figure for Chinese and have indicated they hold about 250 more.

FLOODS SWAMP
LOWER TEXAS
COASTAL AREA

ROBSTOWN, Tex. (AP)—More than 2,500 persons were homeless today along the swamped lower Texas coast as rising water from ten days of deluge rains seeped into homes on the flat coastal plains.

At least 2,000 were evacuated in this farming community of 8,000 about 17 miles west of Corpus Christi. Many spent their second night in emergency shelter. They were joined by new refugees late last night as runoff from heavy afternoon thundershowers rushed into the water bound towns.

The number of homeless increased as intermittent thundershowers continued along the coast. More rain was forecast. Steady west winds from the Gulf drove moist air inland.

Another town hard hit was Sinton 28 miles north of Corpus Christi, where 450 were evacuated.

The south Texas flood was no great danger to life because the water rose slowly. It spread over vast acreages and was trapped behind drainage ditch levees, railroad embankments and other obstructions. Driving was slow.

HOLD MOTHER
FOR SLAYING

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—A 38-year-old Williamsport woman was held in Lycoming County jail today on a charge of suspicion of murder in the death of her 2-months-old son.

Dist. Atty. Markin R. Knight said the woman, Dorothy Eleanor Hill, told him she placed the baby, Donald F. Hill, in the oven of a gas stove in her home last night, closed the door and turned on the gas.

"I thought the baby would be better off dead," Knight quoted the woman as saying.

Chief of Police John G. Good, filed the charge against the woman after the baby was pronounced dead on arrival at Williamsport exchange.

The Reds originally promised to return 12,763 Allied soldiers—3,313 of them Americans—but last week they said the figure would be increased because it did not list soldiers captured in the last days of the war.

The U. N. command has delivered 50,117 North Koreans and 5,502 Chinese.

The dead were identified as Frank Bowes, 51, a Philadelphia policeman; his wife, Almara, 43; their son, William, 18; Paul Lazuk, 22, and Mildred Pylent, 19, both of Shenandoah.

The Bowes family was in one of the cars involved in the tragedy on Wildwood boulevard.

Two occupants of the other vehicle were injured. They were the driver, Jerome Tyszkiewicz, 26, and Miss Pylent's 16-year-old sister, Margaret, also of Shenandoah.

The two injured were taken to Burdette Tomlin Memorial Hospital in Cape May Court House, where they were reported not in critical condition.

National League Sluggers Go Wild With 22 Homers To Set Five New Marks; Tie Two

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

National League sluggers went wild yesterday, blasting 22 home runs to set five new records and tie two others.

Brooklyn's Dodgers walloped the St. Louis Cardinals 20-4 and then saw their league lead cut to 10 games when the Milwaukee Braves trounced the Pittsburgh Pirates 19-4 and 11-5.

In the American, New York's 8 1/2-game margin over Chicago remained intact after the Yankees spun a double-header with the White Sox, winning 10-6 and losing 1-0.

Eight In One Game

But the spotlight was on the senior circuit, where these marks were recorded:

Major league record tied: eight home runs in one game, by Milwaukee. The Yankees hit eight June 28, 1939.

National League records set: 1. Eight homers in one game, by Milwaukee. Seven teams had hit seven.

2. Twelve homers hit in double-header, by Milwaukee. The Giants hit nine in 1939.

Musial Sets New Mark 3. Twelve home runs in two successive games, by Milwaukee. Pittsburgh hit 10 in 1926.

4. Twenty-eight home runs on the road, by Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews, who rapped three yesterday for his 41st, 42nd and 43rd of the season. Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner hit 25 on the road in 1949.

5. A hundred runs scored by Stan Musial of the Cardinals for the 10th consecutive season to break his own league mark.

12 Runs In 7th National League records tied: 1. Twelve runs in the seventh inning, by Brooklyn. Chicago's Cubs scored 12 May 28, 1925.

2. Five runs hit in by Brooklyn catcher Roy Campanella to give him 122 for the season. Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs set the record of 122 RBIs for catcher in 1930, later tied by Walker Cooper, Giants, in 1947.

While the 22 homers tell three short of the National League's record of 23 on July 16, 1950, the league raised its total home run output to 1,008, only 92 short of its all-time mark set in 1950. The American League hit only nine home runs yesterday to raise its total to 740. The league record is 973 in 1950.

Braves Assured Of 2nd Spearheaded by rookie Jim Peardon's three homers in the first game and three by Mathews in the two on, the Braves practically assured themselves of second place. Other Braves homers were hit by Johnny Logan two, Del Crandall, Joe Adcock, Sid Gordon and Jack Danner. Johnny O'Brien hit Pittsburgh's lone four-bagger.

Only one other rookie besides Peardon ever hit three home runs in one game. That was Mathews last year. Incidentally, Mathews now is only four games behind Babe Ruth's pace when he blasted 60 in 1927. The Babe, however, hit 17 in September.

Brooklyn's 19th assault on four Cardinal hurlers made it a simple matter for Carl Ernsme to register his 17th victory of the season against five defeats. Harvey Had-dix hit his seventh for St. Louis.

9th Inning Homer Home runs by Alvin Dark, Bobby Thomson, Wes Westrum and Dary Spencer powered the Giants to a 10-1 victory over Chicago but the Cubs came back to win the second game 6-2 on Manager Phil Cavarretta's punch-out double with the bases loaded in the eighth inning.

The game was halted at the end of the eighth because of darkness. Smokey Burgess' ninth-inning homer gave the Phillies a 4-3 nightcap victory and a sweep of the double-header with Cincinnati. Karl Drews won his eighth in the Phillies' 4-0 first-game triumph despite a triple play by the Reds, the first in the National League this season.

Cleveland's Indians stretched their winning streak to six games, beating Boston twice 6-5 and 8-4 despite Ted Williams' sixth home run for the Red Sox.

A's Lose Pair Rookie Don Larsen hurled a two-hitter for the St. Louis Browns but Washington came back to win the second game of the double-header 9-3.

Detroit's Steve Gromek and Al Aber hurled seven-hitters as the Tigers swept both ends of a double-header from Philadelphia's Athletics 10-1 and 9-1.

"LITTLE MO" IS FEATURED IN TODAY'S PLAY

By WILL GRIDISLEY

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. 2—The first appearance of Maureen "Little Mo" Connolly and a trio of international matches involving U. S. and Australian talent feature today's program in the National Tennis Championships at West Side Tennis Club.

Miss Connolly, at 16 shooting for her third straight U. S. crown and a sweep of the world's titles, had a late afternoon date with Jean French Faller of nearby Amherst, N. Y. P's only a mild rest for the blonde whiz from San Diego, Calif.

Headlining the international schedule in the plush stadium enclosure was a match between Rex Hartwig, Australia's hand-some Davis Cupper and Billy Talbot of New York, the veteran who ranks sixth nationally.

Two Other Highlights But there were two other engagements attracting almost equal attention for those who like to compare the net prowess of the two major tennis-playing countries.

Willy Ar. Larsen of San Leandro, Calif., 1950 national champion, was paired against Clive Wilders of the Australian who almost upset Ken Rosewall at Wimbledon this summer, and left Mervyn Rose, another of the Aussie ace, against Sidney Schwartz of Long Beach, N. Y.

As the tournament moved forward laboriously with no major surprises to date, the most discussed performer was a lanky collegian from California named Bob Perry.

The 20-year-old UCLA student from Los Angeles scored an important victory yesterday when he beat Harry Lukas of San Francisco, 10th ranked nationally, 6-4, 7-5, 6-4.

Pitching—Billy Pierce, White Sox—pitched a four-hitter to win a 10th hurling duel from New York's Jim McDonnell after the Yankees had taken the opener 10-6.

MISS FAULK IS SURE TO BE ON CURTIS CUP LIST

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
PROVIDENCE, R. I. 2—There's sure to be one newcomer, Mary Lena Faulk, on the 1954 Curtis Cup golf team and there may be several. But the committee which will select seven girls to play the British side next summer may have to fall back on the girls who lost in 1952 to round out the lineup.

The results of last week's 53rd U. S. Women's Championship will carry a lot of weight in selecting the team. And what that tournament apparently proved more than anything else is that the bright young players aren't quite ready to take over from the more experienced older girls.

And, since the 1952 Curtis Cup team was the first ever to lose to Britain, that poses quite a problem in choosing a winning combination.

Just Missed Last Year

Miss Faulk, as 1953 champion of the United States and semifinalist in the British Women's Championship, is an obvious selection. Now 21 years old, she was just reaching her tournament peak when the 1952 team was picked and didn't make it. Now a lot of the girls who play golf against her figure she's the best of them all.

From the start, the competitors, topped the windy, 5-foot-6, 120-pound Thomasville, Ga., girl as a possible winner. And Mary Lena justified their predictions with an impressive 3 and 2 victory over the stubby and suborn Polly Riley of Fort Worth in Saturday's final. Her margin wasn't big, but the sub-par score of 73 that gave her a 6-up lead on the morning round was easily the best performance of the week.

As runner-up Miss Riley should be the No. 2 selection for her fourth Curtis Cup team. After these two going strictly on results and guessing work—the lineup could be something like this: Barbara Romack, Patricia Lesser, Dorothy Kirby, Pat O'Sullivan and Mrs. John Hultgren. The best "prospect" to show here last week, 16-year-old Margaret (WHI) Smith, is not eligible because she's a nonresident of the United States.

LASTARZA SAYS MARGIANO GOING "TO GET HURT"

By The Associated Press

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y. 2—Challenger Roland LaStarza expressed his admiration for Rocky Marciano but in an outspoken burst of oratory said that the heavy-weight champion's slam-bang style of fighting is going to make Rocky "soft in the head."

"He's gonna get hurt," said Roland. "Maybe not by me. If I don't do it somebody else will. He takes two, three or four punches to give one. If he keeps it up he's gonna get soft in the head. That's no good. He respects only his power to take and give a punch."

Only moments before, the hard-some, 26-year-old ex-GI had said of Rocky in an interview: "He's a great fighter. He's the champion."

Then he came out with his explosive remarks in the midst of a discussion on what the average fight fan likes to see. It was agreed by all concerned that the fans want slam-bang action and blood.

"That's not for me, though," said LaStarza, who gets his crack at Marciano's crown in the Polo Grounds Sept. 24. "My idea of a great fight is when I can make a man miss and then inflict damage. It's when I can beat a guy without getting hurt—to win easy or by knocking my man out."

National League Sluggers Go Wild With 22 Homers To Set Five New Marks; Tie Two

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

National League sluggers went wild yesterday, blasting 22 home runs to set five new records and tie two others.

Brooklyn's Dodgers walloped the St. Louis Cardinals 20-4 and then saw their league lead cut to 10 games when the Milwaukee Braves trounced the Pittsburgh Pirates 19-4 and 11-5.

In the American, New York's 8½-game margin over Chicago remained intact after the Yankees split a double-header with the White Sox, winning 10-6 and losing 1-0.

Eight In One Game

But the spotlight was on the senior circuit, where these marks were recorded:

Major league record tied; eight home runs in one game, by Milwaukee. The Yankees hit eight June 28, 1939.

National League records set: 1. Eight homers in one game, by Milwaukee. Seven teams had hit seven.

2. Twelve homers hit in double-header, by Milwaukee. The Giants hit nine in 1939.

3. Twelve home runs in two successive games, by Milwaukee. Pittsburgh hit 10 in 1925.

4. Twenty-eight home runs on the road, by Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews, who rapped three yesterday for his 41st, 42nd and 43rd of the season. Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner hit 25 on the road in 1949.

5. A hundred runs scored by Stan Musial of the Cardinals for the 10th consecutive season to break his own league mark.

12 Runs In 7th
National League records tied: 1. Twelve runs in the seventh inning, by Brooklyn. Chicago's Cubs scored 12 May 28, 1925.

2. Five runs batted in by Brooklyn catcher Roy Campanella to give him 122 for the season. Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs set the record of 122 RBIs for catcher in 1930, later tied by Walker Cooper, Giants, in 1947.

While the 22 homers fell three short of the National League's record of 25 on July 16, 1950, the league raised its total home run output to 1,006, only 92 short of its all-time mark set in 1950. The American League hit only nine home runs yesterday to raise its total to 740. The league record is 973 in 1950.

Braves Assured Of 2nd
Spearheaded by rookie Jim Pendleton's three homers in the first game and three by Mathews in the twin bill, the Braves practically assured themselves of second place. Other Braves' homers were hit by Johnny Logan (two), Del Crandall, Joe Adcock, Sid Gordon and Jack Dittmer. Johnny O'Brien hit Pittsburgh's lone four-bagger.

Only one other rookie besides Pendleton ever hit three home runs in one game. That was Mathews last year. Incidentally, Mathews now is only four games behind Babe Ruth's pace when he blasted 60 in 1927. The Babe, however, hit 17 in September.

Brooklyn's 19-hit assault on four Cardinal hurlers made it a simple matter for Carl Erskine to register his 17th victory of the season against five defeats. Harvey Had-dix lot his seventh for St. Louis.

9th Inning Homer
Home runs by Alvin Dark, Bobby Thomson, Wes Westrum and Daryl Spencer powered the Giants to a 10-1 victory over Chicago but the Cubs came back to win the second game 6-2 on Manager Phil Cavarretta's pinch-hit double with the bases loaded in the eighth inning.

The game was halted at the end of the eighth because of darkness.

Smoky Burgess' ninth-inning homer gave the Phillies a 4-3 nightcap victory and a sweep of the double-header with Cincinnati. Karl Drews won his eighth in the Phillies' 4-2 first-game triumph despite a triple play by the Reds, the first in the National League this season.

Cleveland's Indians stretched their winning streak to six games, beating Boston twice 6-5 and 8-4 despite Ted Williams' sixth home run for the Red Sox.

A's Lose Pair
Rookie Don Larsen hurled a two-hit 3-0 shutout for the St. Louis Browns but Washington came back to win the second game of the double-header 9-3.

Detroit's Steve Gromek and Al Aber hurled seven-hitters as the Tigers swept both ends of a double-header from Philadelphia's Athletics 10-1 and 9-1.

Now 27 years old, she was just reaching her tournament peak when the 1952 team was picked and didn't make it. Now a lot of the girls who play golf against her figure she's the best of them all.

From the start, the competitors tabbed the wiry, 5-foot-6, 120-pound Thomasville, Ga., girl as a possible winner. And Mary Lena justified their predictions with an impressive 3 and 2 victory over the stubby and stubborn Polly Riley of Fort Worth in Saturday's final. Her margin wasn't big. But the sub-par score of 73 that gave her a 6-up lead on the morning round was easily the best performance of the week.

As runner-up Miss Riley should be the No. 2 selection for her fourth Curtis Cup team. After these two going strictly on results and guesswork—the lineup could be something like this: Barbara Romack, Patricia Lesser, Dorothy Kirkby, Pat O'Sullivan and Mrs. John Hul-teng. The best "prospect" to show here last week, 16-year-old Margaret (Wiffi) Smith, is not eligible because she's a nonresident of the United States.

Then he came out with his explosive remarks in the midst of a discussion on what the average fight fan likes to see. It was agreed by all concerned that the fans want slam-bang action and blood.

"That's not for me, though," said LaStarza, who gets his crack at Marciano's crown in the Polo Grounds Sept. 24. "My idea of a great fight is when I can make a man miss and then inflict damage. It's when I can beat a guy without getting hurt—to win easy or by knocking my man out."

LASTARZA SAYS MARCIANO GOING "TO GET HURT"

GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y. (P)—Challenger Roland LaStarza expressed his admiration for Rocky Marciano but in an outspoken burst of oratory said that the heavyweight champion's slam-bang style of fighting is going to make Rocky "soft in the head."

"He's gonna get hurt," said Roland. "Maybe not by me. If I don't do it somebody else will. He takes two, three or four punches to give one. If he keeps it up he's gonna get soft in the head. That's no good. He respects only his power to take and give a punch."

STARTONI LEADS AT HUNTINGDON

HUNTINGDON, Pa. (P)—A seven under par 67, good for a new course record, gave Sirio Startoni, the best score in the third annual Mount Union Open Golf Tournament.

Startoni, 30, an aircraft worker, was one stroke in front of Jack Helms, York, and broke the course standard set four years ago by four different golfers. Startoni competed in the amateur division of yesterday's event which attracted 169 entries from all over the state.

Next best score was turned in by Jack Hafer of State College, a 72 for second in the amateur division. Lynn Creason, Harrisburg; Bud Fields, Mount Union, last year's top man; Dr. Tom Holtzman, Hershey; and Frank Malay, Pittsburgh, all carded 73s to tie for third in the amateur division.

Harold Dore, Huntingdon, and Raymond Peterson, Ridgway, each had 73 to split second in the pro class.

Par on the 6,522 yard course is 74.

TURN VILLAGE UPSIDE DOWN TO GET LICENSE

TRUCKSVILLE, Pa. (P) — A Frenchman's pen to go fishing has turned this Luzerne County village upside down.

It all started when Pierre Antoine Jean Bouraud de la Combe from Menesple, near Bordeaux, told Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Nunis he'd like to do some fishing before he starts classes this fall at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The Nunists, who are entertaining Pierre, discovered that non-citizens are not eligible for Pennsylvania fishing licenses.

Here On Scholarship

There was a call to Gov. John S. Fine. Then a telegram was dispatched to Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower asking if she would transfer to Pierre a special fishing license issued her. But state law prohibits such a transfer.

Undaunted, the Nunists are now considering an appeal directly to the Pennsylvania Game Commission for a special dispensation.

The French student will attend MIT off a Fulbright-Smith-Mundt scholarship. His visit with the Nunists was arranged under a State Department program called "Experiment in International Living," in which foreign students live with Americans in order to make friends and learn the language.

Iowa Corn Borers Confuse Experts

AMES, Ia. (P) — The corn borers have even the experts confused in Iowa this year. Harold Gunderson, Iowa State College extension entomologist, says the borers normally reach their egg-laying peak around June 17 and have finished laying by June 25. But this year the laying continued throughout July.

Farmers normally spray when they find 100 egg masses per 100 plants. But that rule doesn't apply this year because eggs laid early already have hatched. And Gunderson says the experts have no other rule to offer that will help the farmers protect their crop.

One Pound Johnny Forced To Shave

SYDNEY (P) — One Pound Johnny, the Australian aboriginal whose bearded face appears on the 2 shillings 6 pence Australian postage stamp, has shaved off his beard.

One Pound Johnny lives on a central Australian cattle station 16 miles west of Alice Springs. Alice Springs people say he is shaving as a disguise to avoid autograph hunters next time he visits town. Since his face first appeared on the stamp two years ago Johnny has received hundreds of letters, some from the United States.

WISH BOY DIES

BUCKHANNON, W. Va. (P) — A little blind boy who once said, "I want a new head for Christmas," is dead. Ralph Reed, 11, was a victim of pneumonia. Ralph made his wish back in 1945, while being treated for a brain disease that eventually caused his blindness. Ralph made his wish.

Although auto traffic deaths remain at peak levels, the killing of pedestrians by cars in the United States has been cut from a peak of 15,563 in 1937 to 8,659 in 1952.

The Schenectady: House Of Traditional Beauty

Rooms five
Bedrooms two Closets seven
Cubage 22,300 ft.
Dimensions 32'x47'

This delightful one-story house contains more room than you might think after looking at its exterior. In addition to a spacious living room, two good size bedrooms, a kitchen, and a dining room, the Schenectady also boasts a large side porch which can easily be glassed in to make another room.

Partially protected by the roof overhang, the front door opens into a good-size entry hall. The coat closet, located at the end of the hallway, is large enough to serve as a storage spot for your family's stormy weather apparel, and have room left over in which to hang visitors' wraps, etc.

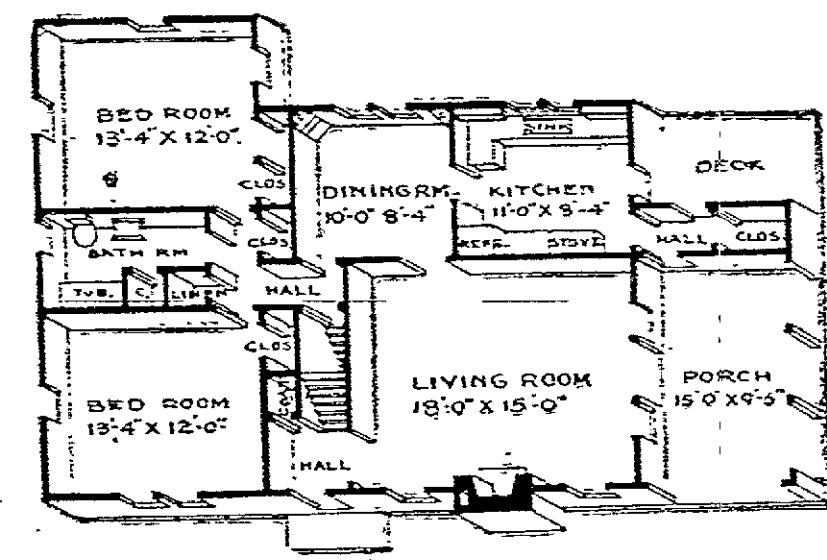

A wide, open arch on the right of the hallway leads into a spacious living room, which is 18 by 15 feet dimensions. Located in the center of the front outside wall and flanked by two windows, the handsome beauty of the flush mantel fireplace is a decorative asset to the living room and to both interior and exterior of the house, as well.

You'll like all that unbroken wall space in the living room, too, for you'll have no trouble at all arranging your largest furniture in the most attractive manner. Although the room is large, it receives plenty of light from the windows in the front wall plus the two windows and the French door that look out on the side porch.

The side porch also is of ample size, for it measures 15 feet by 9 feet 6 inches. Whether you prefer to enclose this porch with screening or to leave it open depends on the needs of your family. However, you can be sure that whatever you decide to do about this side porch, it will remain one of the most attractive features of this delightful home.

In the back wall of the porch is a doorway opening on a hallway that links the porch, back sun deck and the house proper, on the left. The large closet in this hall would make an excellent storage place for all sort of household items.

Just on the left of this hallway, is the compactly arranged kitchen. Complete with cabinets above and below, for handy storage of cooking ingredients and utensils, the working counters should be arranged in an L along the back outside wall and the small wall section dividing the kitchen from the dining room.

Placed in the center of this working counter area, the sink is directly underneath the double windows in the back wall. This arrangement not only provides plenty of daylight while you're working in the kitchen, but also enables you to watch the children playing in the back yard.

Against the opposite wall, in the corner near the door doorway, is the suggested location for the refrigerator. The stove should, then, be placed in the opposite corner. Installing a work counter between these two important kitchen appliances provides an ideal set-up for preparing food for cooking. The same convenient arrangement will hold all the foodstuffs you want to put in the refrigerator; they'll be easy to reach so near at hand.

A pleasant room of moderate size, the dining room is connected directly with the kitchen by a doorway in the side wall. Measuring 10 feet by 8 feet 4 inches, the dining room boasts double windows in the back outside wall. Near these windows is an excellent location for the dining room table.

Two built-in china cabinets in the corners of this room solve the problem of where to keep china and glassware, and enable you to use these as an integral part of the decorative scheme of your dining room.

A short hallway, running in a horizontal direction, connects the dining room with two bedrooms located at the further side of the house. There is a wealth of closet space along the wall of the hall connecting the bedrooms and the bathroom. This central arrangement of closet storage area is in keeping with modern home planning which groups closets together for the home-owner's convenience as well as to utilize fully as much available space as possible.

Both bedrooms measure 13 feet 4 inches by 12 feet and are well lighted, well ventilated, and comfortable rooms. The back bedroom, which occupies that section set back further than the rest of the house, has one window in the side wall and another in the back for cross ventilation, a much-in-demand arrangement for bedrooms.

Located between the two bedrooms, the bathroom is large enough to accommodate both a tub and a shower. There is another good-sized closet in the bathroom. Back to the bedroom closet, and opening on the central hallway, is an extra large linen closet certain to win a vote of approval from any woman.

With double windows in the front wall, the second bedroom also has a window in the side wall. The extra large closet in the side wall of this room is a good reason for using this room as the master bedroom.

Complete plans and specifications for the Schenectady, or any other home in this series, can be obtained at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact price of these documents, write to the Home Building Editor, Dept. 18, The Gettysburg Times, and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a three-cent stamp. At least, one week should be allowed for a reply.

Things Of The Soil

Storing Cabbage For Winter

Few other vegetables are as easily and economically stored for all-winter family use as cabbage. And too, cabbage is one of the most healthful vegetables by which needed vitamins and minerals may be distributed from mid-autumn, until spring. Of course, several steps in culture, harvest, and storage should be stressed at this time.

High quality cabbage for making sauerkraut and other cabbage products and for direct storage is grown only by full control over cabbage worms and aphids. The three forms of worms are the imported cabbage worm, the common looper and the larger green larvae or caterpillar. All three feed directly on the leaves and unless they are killed off soon after they appear they will seriously damage the heads and may entirely destroy the plant. Rotenone out in your garden, or started in a flat or flower pot. Set them with the top an inch or two below the surface of the soil. Plants which have developed roots and top growth are usually in the market during August, and dormant roots may be obtained and planted during the fall.

Mulch Carefully

Amateurs who lift oriental poppy roots seldom succeed in getting up the whole root; and from any piece that may be left in the ground a new plant will grow. If you intend to lift a root later in the season be sure to mark the plant's location before the top growth has all died, or it may be difficult to find it.

Plants must be obtained, rather than seed, if you wish to be sure of the color of the flowers. These are limited to white and various tones of red and pink. Divisions of named varieties will duplicate the parent, but seed will produce a mixture of colors, some desirable, some less so. Seed is best sown in the fall and will germinate in the spring.

When established plants make new growth in the fall, hill up oil around the plants to make a low mound, so that water will drain away from the crown during the winter. A mulch may be placed around the plant, but do not cover the leaves, except with material which will shade them, and protect them from rabbits. Baskets or chicken wire will give this protection.

the perennial poppies, though lovely in coloring.

Deep soil with good drainage are necessary for perennial poppies. New plants are propagated at this time of year, when the roots are dormant. The long tap roots are lifted and cut into sections, two to six inches long, making a slanting cut at the top, and a straight cut at the bottom, to make sure of planting it right side up.

These root sections may be set

Oriental Poppies A Dream Of Beginners Come True

Oriental, Shirley, California and Iceland Poppies

Oriental poppies are perennial flowers such as gardening beginners dream about, the kind that, once planted bloom every year without any further attention.

They bloom at the same time as the tall, bearded irises, which they rival in spectacular beauty. They are long-lived hardy as they have few insect enemies, and are rather make so pleasing a contribution to home garden should be without them.

Poppies are given poppies high praise for their beauty, colorful and a reputation for being

This is based upon the fact that they will not last long as cut flowers, so are never seen in florist's shops, and rarely used in bouquets. But in the garden border they provide dazzling color for several weeks.

Don't Produce Opium

Oriental poppies do not produce opium. Quite a list of annual poppies, double and single, which used to be popular garden flowers in this country, are now forbidden by federal law, because they can be used to produce it. Shirley poppies are the only annual type that may still be grown, and they are much smaller in size than dust is recommended, applied as often as any worms are found on the plants. Under no circumstances should DDT be used on cabbage. The recommended rotenone is both safe and effective. Why risk the family's health with a poison as dangerous and unknown in its total effects as DDT?

Cabbage aphids often take a heavy toll before their presence is detected, due to the fact that they are almost the same shade as the background on which they feed. They must be combated with nicotine sulphate, applied as a spray in soapy water or as a dust applied when the air is still and the temperature is well above 70 degrees F. Either remedy should be repeated as often as necessary to keep the lice killed off.

Sauerkraut may be made at any time from late August until late fall or whenever suitable cabbage is available. Here is an excellent food, healthful and nourishing. It is by far the most compact form in which any vegetable can be stored. Even urban housewives may make and store sauerkraut.

Growers may easily store cabbage for all-winter marketing and family use by the coldframe, cellar or burial method. A few heads, preferably the latest crop, may be stored in a coldframe by taking up by the roots and setting them close together in the frame and working soil firmly around the roots as if they were being transplanted. Of course, the sash must be shaded and ventilation provided as needed.

A large number of heads may be stored in a cool, dark cellar by cutting them late and wrapping them individually in paper and placing them on shelves. It is not advisable to store cabbage in a cellar beneath a residence because odors may penetrate the rooms above. This method is better for temporary storage to bridge periods of inclement weather over winter. The main crop should be buried in an outdoor pit.

Two types of burial are recommended. One consists of cutting the late heads from the stalks and piling them in a ridge or conical heap, on a liberal layer of straw or other dry vegetation. Cover the heap with vegetation and a sufficient layer of soil to prevent later freezing. A ventilation flue should be erected up from the center of the heap.

Or late cabbage may be taken up as advised for coldframe storing and set close together in a rectangular pit sided with boards like a hooped pit, with timbers laid crosswise and covered with vegetation. This is an excellent way to store a large crop of late cabbage. Heads may be removed from one end of the burial pit without disturbing the remainder. The side boards should be banked with soil and the entire pit amply drained.

TURN VILLAGE UPSIDE DOWN TO GET LICENSE

TRUCKSVILLE, Pa. (P) — A Frenchman's yen to go fishing has turned this Luzerne County village upside down.

It all started when Pierre Antoine Jean Boutaud de la Combe from Menesple, near Bordeaux, told Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Nunlist he'd like to do some fishing before he starts classes this fall at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The Nunlists, who are entertaining Pierre, discovered that non-citizens are not eligible for Pennsylvania fishing licenses.

Here On Scholarship There was a call to Gov. John S. Pine. Then a telegram was dispatched to Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower asking if she would transfer to Pierre a special fishing license issued her. But state law prohibits such a transfer.

Undaunted, the Nunlists are now considering an appeal directly to the Pennsylvania Game Commission for a special dispensation. The French student will attend MIT on a Fulbright-Smith-Mundt scholarship. His visit with the Nunlists was arranged under a State Department program called "Experiment in International Living," in which foreign students live with Americans in order to make friends and learn the language.

Iowa Corn Borers Confuse Experts

AMES, Ia. (P) — The corn borers have even the experts confused in Iowa this year. Harold Gunderson, Iowa State College extension entomologist, says the borers normally reach their egg-laying peak around June 17 and have finished laying by June 25. But this year the laying continued throughout July.

Farmers normally spray when they find 100 egg masses per 100 plants. But that rule doesn't apply this year because eggs laid early already have hatched. And Gunderson says the experts have no other rule to offer that will help the farmers protect their crop.

One Pound Johnny Forced To Shave

SYDNEY (P) — One Pound Johnny, the Australian aboriginal whose bearded face appears on the 2 shillings 6 pence Australian postage stamp, has shaved off his beard.

One Pound Johnny lives on a central Australian cattle station 16 miles west of Alice Springs. Alice Springs people say he is shaving as a disguise to avoid autograph hunters next time he visits town. Since his face first appeared on the stamp two years ago Johnny has received hundreds of letters, some from the United States.

WISH BOY DIES

BUCKHANNON, W. Va. (P) — A little blind boy who once said, "I want a new head for Christmas," is dead. Ralph Reed, 11, was a victim of pneumonia. Ralph made his wish back in 1945, while being treated for a brain disease that eventually caused his blindness. Ralph made his wish.

Although auto traffic deaths remain at peak levels, the killing of pedestrians by cars in the United States has been cut from a peak of 15,500 in 1937 to 8,600 in 1952.

The Schenectady: House Of Traditional Beauty

Rooms	five
Bedrooms	two
Closets	seven
Cubage	22,500 ft.
Dimensions	32'x47'

This delightful one-story house contains more room than you might think after looking at its exterior. In addition to a spacious living room, two good size bedrooms, a kitchen, and a dining room, the Schenectady also boasts a large size porch which can easily be glassed in to make another room.

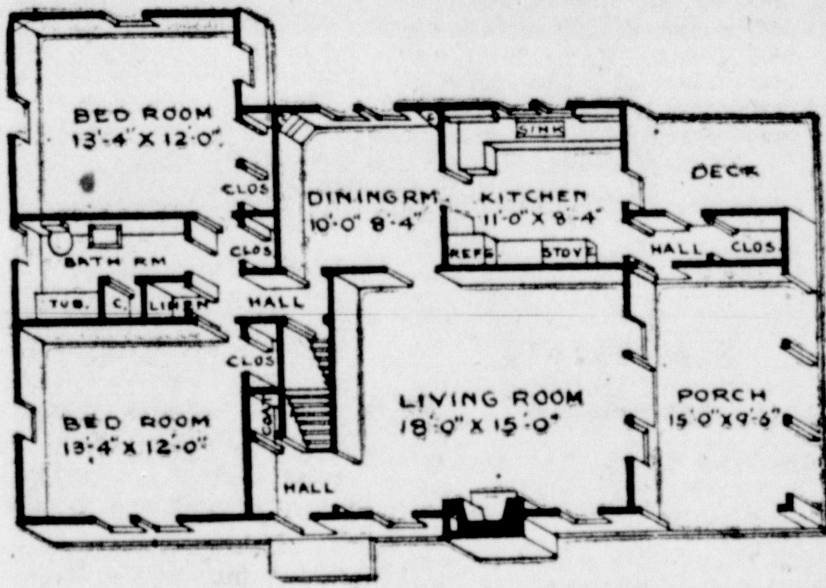

Partially protected by the roof overhang, the front door opens into a good-size entry hall. The coat closet, located at the end of the hallway, is large enough to serve as a storage spot for your family's stormy weather apparel, and have room left over in which to hang visitors' wraps, etc.

A wide, open arch on the right of the hallway leads into a spacious living room, which is 18 by 15 feet dimensions. Located in the center of the front outside wall and flanked by two windows, the handsome beauty of the flush mantel fireplace is a decorative asset to the living room and to both interior and exterior of the house, as well.

You'll like all that unbroken wall space in the living room, too, for you'll have no trouble at all arranging your largest furniture in the most attractive manner. Although the room is large, it receives plenty of light from the windows in the front wall plus the two windows and the French door that look out on the side porch.

The side porch also is of ample size, for it measures 15 feet by 9 feet 6 inches. Whether you prefer to enclose this porch with screening or to leave it open depends on the needs of your family. However, you can be sure that whatever you decide to do about this side porch, it will remain one of the most attractive features of this delightful home.

In the back wall of the porch is a doorway opening on a hallway that links the porch, back sun deck and the house proper, on the left. The large closet in this hall would make an excellent storage place for all sort of household items. Just on the left off this hallway, is the compactly arranged kitchen. Complete with cabinets above and below, for handy storage of cooking ingredients and utensils, the working counters should be arranged in an L along the back outside wall and the small wall section dividing the kitchen from the dining room.

Placed in the center of this working counter area, the sink is directly underneath the double windows in the back wall. This arrangement not only provides plenty of daylight while you're working in the kitchen, but also enables you to watch the children playing in the back yard.

Against the opposite wall, in the corner near the hall doorway, is the suggested location for the refrigerator. The stove should, then, be placed in the opposite corner. Installing a work counter between these two important kitchen appliances provides an ideal set-up for preparing food for cooking. The same convenient arrangement will hold all the foodstuffs you want to put in the refrigerator; they'll be easy to reach so near at hand.

A pleasant room of moderate size, the dining room is connected directly with the kitchen by a doorway in the side wall. Measuring 10 feet by 8 feet 4 inches, the dining room boasts double windows in the back outside wall. Near these windows is an excellent location for the dining room table.

Two built-in china cabinets in the corners of this room solve the problem of where to keep china and glassware, and enable you to use these as an integral part of the decorative scheme of your dining room.

A short hallway, running in a horizontal direction, connects the dining room with two bedrooms located at the further side of the house. There is a wealth of closet space along the wall of the hall connecting the bedrooms and the bathroom. This central arrangement of closet storage area is in keeping with modern home planning which groups closets together for the home-owner's convenience as well as to utilize fully as much available space as possible.

Both bedrooms measure 13 feet 4 inches by 12 feet and are well lighted, well ventilated, and comfortable rooms. The back bedroom, which occupies that section set back further than the rest of the house, has one window in the side wall and another in the back for cross ventilation, a much-in-demand arrangement for bedrooms.

Located between the two bedrooms, the bathroom is large enough to accommodate both a tub and a shower. There is another good-sized closet in the bathroom. Back to the bedroom closet, and opening on the central hallway, is an extra large linen closet certain to win a vote of approval from any woman.

With double windows in the front wall, the second bedroom also has a window in the side wall. The extra large closet in the side wall of this room is a good reason for using this room as the master bedroom.

Complete plans and specifications for the Schenectady, or any other home in this series, can be obtained at moderate cost. To ascertain the exact price of these documents, write to the Home Building Editor, Dept. 18, The Gettysburg Times, and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a three-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply.

Deep soil with good drainage are necessary for perennial poppies. New plant are propagated at this time of year, when the roots are dormant. The long tap roots are lifted and cut into sections, two to six inches long, making a slanting cut at the top, and a straight cut at the bottom, to make sure of planting it right side up.

These root sections may be set

Storing Cabbage For Winter Few other vegetables are as easily and economically stored for all-winter family use as cabbage. And too, cabbage is one of the most healthful vegetables by which needed vitamins and minerals may be distributed from mid-autumn until spring. Of course, several steps in culture, harvest, and storage should be stressed at this time.

High quality cabbage for making sauerkraut and other cabbage products and for direct storage is grown only by full control over cabbage worms and aphids. The three forms of worms are the imported cabbage worm, the common looper and the larger green larvae or caterpillar. All three feed directly on the leaves and unless they are killed off soon after they appear they will seriously damage the heads and may entirely destroy the plant. Rotenone out in your garden, or started in a flat or flower pot. Set them with the top an inch or two below the surface of the soil. Plants which have developed roots and top growth are usually in the market during August, and dormant roots may be obtained and planted during the fall.

Mulch Carefully Amateurs who lift oriental poppy roots seldom succeed in getting up the whole root and from any piece that may be left in the ground a new plant will grow. If you intend to lift a root later in the season be sure to mark the plant's location before the top growth has all died, or it may be difficult to find it.

Plants must be obtained, rather than seed, if you wish to be sure of the color of the flowers. These are limited to white and various tones of red and pink. Divisions of named varieties will duplicate the parent, but seed will produce a mixture of colors, some desirable, some less so. Seed is best sown in the fall and will germinate in the spring.

When established plants make new growth in the fall, hill up oil around the plants to make a low mound, so that water will drain away from the crown during the winter. A mulch may be placed around the plant, but do not cover the leaves, except with material which will shade them, and protect them from rabbits. Baskets or chicken wire will give this protection.

dust is recommended, applied as often as any worms are found on the plants. Under no circumstances should DDT be used on cabbage. The recommended rotenone is both safe and effective. Why risk the family's health with a poison as dangerous and unknown in its total effects as DDT?

Cabbage aphids often take a heavy toll before their presence is detected, due to the fact that they are almost the same shade as the background on which they feed. They must be combated with nicotine sulphate, applied as a spray in soapy water or as a dust applied when the air is still and the temperature is well above 70 degrees F. Either remedy should be repeated as often as necessary, to keep the lice killed off.

Sauerkraut may be made at any time from late August until late fall or whenever suitable cabbage is available. Here is an excellent food, healthful and nourishing. It is by far the most compact form in which any vegetable can be stored. Even urban housewives may make and store sauerkraut.

Growers may easily store cabbage for all-winter marketing and family use by the coldframe, cellar or burial method. A few heads, preferably the latest crop, may be stored in a coldframe by taking up by the roots and setting them close together in the frame and working soil firmly around the roots as if they were being transplanted. Of course, the sash must be shaded and ventilation provided as needed.

A larger number of heads may be stored in a cool, dark cellar by cutting them late and wrapping them individually in paper and placing them on shelves. It is not advisable to store cabbage in a cellar beneath a residence because odors may penetrate the rooms above. This method is better for temporary storage to bridge periods of inclement weather over winter. The main crop should be buried in an outdoor pit.

Two types of burial are recommended. One consists of cutting the late heads from the stalks and piling them in a ridge or conical heap, on a liberal layer of straw or other dry vegetation. Cover the heap with vegetation and a sufficient layer of soil to prevent later freezing. A ventilation flue should be erected up from the center of the heap.

Or late cabbage may be taken up as advised for coldframe storing and set close together in a rectangular pit sided with boards like a hotbed pit, with timbers laid crosswise and covered with vegetation. This is an excellent way to store a large crop of late cabbage. Heads may be removed from one end of the burial pit without disturbing the remainder. The side boards should be banked with soil and the entire pit amply drained.

Preliminary Flurry Obscures Big Questions About Korean Peace Confab; Will It Succeed?

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, P.—The dramatic steps preliminary to a Korean peace conference, such as the press conference, the exchange of the United Nations to peace delegates to the conference, have obscured two main questions:

Will it succeed? If not, then what?

For two weeks world attention has been focused on the United Nations. There the United States managed to keep India from being named to the peace conference, and also maneuvered Russia into taking part only if the Communists and North Koreans say they want her.

Price May Be High

A price tag, perhaps expensive, was attached to this victory for the United States. There was some conflict with allies over the American stand against naming India. The American stand may have assured, more than now appears, the feelings of India, largest non-Communist nation in Asia, and may have caused resentment among other non-Communist Asians.

Such wounds can be healed

A-Bomb Crater

Open To Public

ALAMOGORDO, N. M. (AP)—Ever had a yen to wander around an A-bomb crater?

The military is finally prepared to gratify your wish with a nice, safe hole with no dangerous radioactivity.

The crater was made when the world's first atomic bomb shattered the dawn July 16, 1945. It will be open for a guided tour Sept. 6.

Still standing are the twisted remains of the steel tower, most of which was vaporized by the bomb. A small section of trinitite—the glassy-green fused desert sand—has been protected with a roof and may be seen.

The crater is still there, but the charred stumps of much of the surrounding desert have been covered over and planted with grass to prevent the blowing of radioactive sand.

The

LEGION OPENS 35TH CONCLAVE AT ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The American Legion officially opened its 35th annual convention today with a sharp fight in prospect over Air Force budget cuts by the administration.

Lewis K. Gough of Pasadena, Calif., national commander of the organization, told convention delegates in his report that while the proposed 1954 budget gives the Air Force only 114 wings, 23 wings have been added to the Air National Guard and Air Reserve.

"Over-all, greater combat strength should be realized through a reduction in lead time, better utilization of personnel and equipment and by the elimination of waste and duplication," Gough said in his report prepared for delivery. The legion's National Security Commission, headed by Thomas E. Partridge of New York, adopted without opposition, however, a report calling the present Air Force inadequate and especially short of replacement crews for the Strategic Air Command.

The legion's National Executive Committee, meeting late yesterday, merely "received and filed" the report without debate.

LEGION OPENS 35TH CONCLAVE AT ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The American Legion officially opened its 35th annual convention today with a sharp fight in prospect over Air Force budget cuts by the administration.

Lewis K. Gough of Pasadena, Calif., national commander of the organization, told convention delegates in his report that while the proposed 1954 budget gives the Air Force only 114 wings, 23 wings have been added to the Air National Guard and Air Reserve.

"Overall, greater combat strength should be realized through a reduction in lead time, better utilization of personnel and equipment and by the elimination of waste and duplication," Gough said in his report prepared for delivery. The legion's National Security Commission, headed by Thoms E. Paradine of New York, adopted without opposition, however, a report calling the present Air Force inadequate and especially short of replacement crews for the Strategic Air Command.

The legion's National Executive Committee, meeting late yesterday, merely "received and filed" the report without debate.

Joe Hodges, past department commander of the legion in Virginia, said the Virginia delegation will try on the floor—probably Wednesday—to get the legion to fight for restoration of a 143-wing Air Force.
